Auctioneer: Charles Hanson

Church & Community Hub
A facility for local groups and events as well as church use

Architect's drawing of front of church with new hub

We have been planning our Church and Community Hub, to replace our aging church hall, since 2017, but Covid-19 delayed matters somewhat. Now we are hoping to commence the build in summer 2022 (subject to tender), we hope that the local community will show its support by participating in this auction. Please consider donating items for auction, and come along on the day to see our famous auctioneer in action!

All Things Bright & Beautiful

We are busy with another project, knitting & crocheting flowers, insects and animals, to be fixed on a net, that will decorate the front of the church in the spring/summer. We aim to make a colourful display to brighten everyone up after the difficult times of Covid. Look out for this, and if you enjoy seeing it, why not make a donation on our justgiving page:

If you don't want to wait until May, you can make a donation anyway!

Charles Hanson, owner of Hansons Auctioneers and a familiar face on television, a man thousands of antiques fans have come to know and love.

People travel from far and wide – including China, Canada and Australia – to visit Charles Hanson's antique showrooms just to say hello.

He regularly appears on TV programmes such as Bargain Hunt and Antiques Road Trip but, though he enjoys TV work, his first love will always be the saleroom.

He thrives on the drama, passion and excitement of an auction – and making great finds.

Charles' passion for history and antiques emerged when he was a boy. At the age of eight, he took up metal detecting. One of his earliest finds was a Charles I coin. He still recalls the excitement he felt when he discovered it.

His working life began at Christie's in London. He went on to launch Hansons Auctioneers in Etwell, Derbyshire, in 2005. Hansons now has sister salerooms in London and Oxfordshire, plus a country house saleroom, Bishton Hall, a Georgian mansion in Staffordshire.

Over the years exciting finds have come thick and fast, sparking media interest all over the world. Charles has sold everything from Queen Victoria's Bloomers for £4,500 to an original Harry Corbett Sooty puppet for a record-breaking £14,000.

Away from the saleroom, Charles is a passionate supporter of charities. For him, it is a privilege to bring the art of auctioneering to important fundraising events to aid good causes. Over the years, he has helped to raise hundreds of thousands of pounds for countless charities.

We need your support by giving items to sell!
